1) DAAD Scholarships for international students

DAAD and @rwthinternationaloffice are offering two scholarships for international students. The next application period started on May 1, 2022.

1. Scholarship for Completing Studies for Students and Doctoral Candidates: a scholarship for international students and doctoral candidates who are currently in their final period of their studies with good academic performance and who are facing financial hardships due to their academic obligations (bachelor or master thesis).
2. Scholarship for Particularly Involved International Students: awarded to international students who, in addition to their good academic performance, are characterized through outstanding extracurricular work in the international context of the university. Involvement in an international context can include, for example, mentoring international students as a buddy or involvement in student initiatives.

For further details on eligibility and the application process, please visit the following websites

If you have any questions regarding these scholarships, you can contact Ms. Tamara Weber at tamara.weber@zhv.rwth-aachen.de

Ms. Weber will also offer a weekly consultation for scholarship applicants every Thursday in May from 3-5pm in Humboldt-Haus or on phone

2) Open day of the student initiatives (TDSI)

At the TDSI (Tag der studentischen Initiativen) on Tuesday, May 10, you will have the opportunity to get to know many different student initiatives at RWTH from 11 am to 4:30 pm.

The TDSI takes place on and around the Templergraben - here you can get in direct contact with the student initiatives, ask questions and network. Whether technology, culture, international affairs, sports, career or social issues - at the TDSI you will find the initiatives that suit you. In addition, the initiatives have prepared presentations to present themselves and their work.

Maybe you too will find an initiative that suits you and that you would like to get involved with!

3) Anti-racism Office of the Equal Opportunities Project of the RWTH student body (GSP)

The Anti-Racism Office (ARS) is a part of the Equal Opportunities Project (GSP) of the student body. The ARS actively promotes a critical approach to racism at RWTH Aachen University. One focus is on establishing a trustworthy contact for students affected by racism and all students/initiatives with a need to talk about racism. Another important objective is to raise awareness among students as well as employees of the RWTH.

If you want to reach out to the Anti-Racism Office you do have the following options:

- Email: ars@gsp.rwth-aachen.de
- Instagram: <https://www.instagram.com/ars.rwth/>
- Website: <http://gsp.rwth-aachen.de/en/gsp-english/>

If you have experienced or observed racism, you can report (anonymously) on their website: <http://gsp.rwth-aachen.de/en/report.racism/>

Currently, the Anti-Racism Office is represented by Naila Khan.

4) Run 'n Dine with the Ausländer*Innen Vertretung (AV)

This summer, get ready to make new friends and enjoy a chill evening filled with delicious home cooked cuisines from all over the world.

They did a small rebranding and came up with a new name for the event previously known as "Running Dinner"

Join the AV on May 28th for the AV's Run 'n Dine! What is Run 'n Dine?

- 1) Sign up with a friend!
- 2) After the registration period, you will be sent a personalized dinner route, along with which course you and your friend will be cooking (either appetizer, entree, or dessert). This course will be cooked in your own kitchen.
- 3) Two other teams will join you, resulting in six people at your dining room table.
- 4) For example, if you and your friend are assigned the appetizer round, then you will cook and serve appetizers in your own home for six people including yourself. For the Main Course, you will go to someone else's home and be served some delicious cooking. For dessert, you will again move locations.
- 5) At a pre-determined time, each team will visit the home of another cooking pair. Always a different location, always new people, always delicious!
- 6) Getting together afterwards with your guests/hosts — strongly recommended!

The registration period will close on 13th May at midnight. Currently we are not checking 3G rules for this event in accordance with the current state regulations. You may of course do a test if you feel more comfortable.

The AV encourages you to cook a dish from your home country (not mandatory, but would be nice!).

To register you can go on the following Link: <https://forms.gle/1kaTiq5JzpJ8s6Gv7>

5) Eurovision Viewing with the AV:

The Eurovision final is always fun to watch, and it becomes even better if you watch it with people from different countries...

The AV team will watch the final at Café & Bar Zuhause (Sandkaulstraße 109/111, 52062 Aachen), at 8:30 PM. They can't wait to see you! (No registration is required!)

Have a nice week in Aachen and enjoy spring!
