

BeBuddy-Newsletter December 2023

1) Job Posting: UROP International Intern 2024

We're on the lookout for a new intern to join our UROP 2024 team! You know Aachen well and love your job as a Buddy for international students? Would you like to support next year's UROP International participants from North America and make their experience unforgettable? Are you an outgoing and independent person with good German and English skills? We would love to receive your CV, a letter of motivation and a transcript of records by January 2, 2024. Kindly send these documents via email to urop@rwth-aachen.de

The tentative program dates for next year are May 20 - July 26.
As an intern your responsibilities will include:

- planning and supervising field trips
- support students with various issues they have (e.g. dorms, health insurance etc.)
- support in organizing events

The internship come with compensation through a UROP scholarship.
Please let us know if you have any questions. We are excited to review your application and look forward to hearing from you via mail!

2) "GlühTemp" (today with Christmas Carols)

Enjoy a mug of Glühwein and/or non-alcoholic punch in good company! At Templergraben (Platanenplatz), you'll find the GlühTemp every Friday from 6pm on up to and including February 3, 2024. Today, on December 8, there will also be the right musical ambience with the joint RWTH Christmas caroling from 6.30 pm on.
Important: Please bring your own mug.

3) Wind Philharmonic Concert - A weekend in New York

With their new chief conductor Senne La Mela, the young musicians of the Bläserphilharmonie Aachen will play an entertaining program with the theme "New York". You can look forward to exciting rhythms, jazzy melodies and, of course, West Side Story!

The Bläserphilharmonie Aachen was founded in 2013 by students of RWTH Aachen University and, despite its still young orchestral history, can already look back on great successes, such as winning a gold medal with distinction twice at the WMC in Kerkrade, the world championships for wind music, in 2017 and 2022.

More information can be found here.

Conductor: Senne La Mela

Tickets: 7,50€/5,00€ (reduced),

On sale: Frankenne, Templergraben 48 or online

4) Application Advice from the RWTH Career Service team

The RWTH Career Center offers all RWTH students the opportunity to have their job application portfolio reviewed. During an individual advising session, they take a close look at your application materials and give you advice on potential changes you should make. Please set up an appointment by emailing them.

The team also offers advising specifically for international students who would like to apply for jobs in the German job market with German application documents.

Additionally, the services extend to advising regarding application documents in English. Trainers are available to you both if you are an international student who wishes to apply to a job in Germany in English or if you would like to apply for a job abroad in English. Native speakers take a look at your application documents and recommend changes.
