IL PIÙ MIGLIORE AL MONDO

(The most best in the world)

IL PIU' MIGLIORE AL MONDO THE MOST BEST IN THE WORLD

a docu-fiction on Mr. Silvio Berlusconi directed by Aurelio Grimaldi 76' – produced during the 2001 italian political election

“Cavaliere, Mr. Silvio Berlusconi, where does the money come from? This is the core question that leads Aurelio Grimaldi and his “motley” crew to search for an answer to Berlusconi’s rise to media tycoon first and to political leader in the last decade. The result is an unforgettable and disquieting portrait of modern Italy. The story begins from the Marco Travaglio’s book, titled “the smell of money” edited in 2001. It talks about some money, suddenly appeared and available comes into the Italian Prime Minister’s societies cash at the beginning of his financial career. The docu-fiction shows an italian profile during the 2001 political election won by Mr. Silvio Berlusconi; produced in the same year and directed by Aurelio Grimaldi it has never broadcasted in Italy.”
