

Part time under graduate student job

日本語を話せる学生を求めているアルバイトがあります。

RWTH Aachen University / ITA has established multiple contacts to Japanese industry partners as well as several universities. In order to support and further promote these mutual partnerships, we are looking for a Japanese speaking student who is interested in a part time job supporting our Japanese-German collaborations through correspondence, project work and student/scientist exchange activities! The required skills are Japanese language proficiency and good communication skills.
